National Army—Chamber of Commerce.

We stated two or three days ago that the citizens of Chicago were making tremendous exertions to secure the location of the Western Army in that city.

We see by yesterday's papers that the Chamber of Commerce of Cincinnati, ever alive to any project for the advancement of the interests of that city, has appointed a committee of five to draw up a memorial to the Congressional Committee in favor of Cincinnati for the location.

We briefly stated that Louisville possessed claims superior to those of any other city in the West; but we have not the time nor the means, nor is a newspaper the proper channel, to bring the claims of Louisville in a proper light before the Congressional Committee. Louisville ought to have the Army; but we see no way of accomplishing this except by action similar to that at Cincinnati.

This, then, is an additional reason for the immediate establishment in our city of a Chamber of Commerce. Had the movement been made five or six weeks ago, when we first mentioned it, the Chamber by this time would have been an actuality, and could have done as the Cincinnati Chamber has done. But there is time yet.

A Chamber can be organized, a committee appointed, and a memorial prepared before Congress meets. We speak thus confidently, because we had a conversation yesterday with two of our most enterprising business men, and learned from one of them that a proposition is really on foot looking to the opening of a Merchants' Exchange. Will not our young and active business men take this matter in hand, and push it? Go to work this morning, get up a call, have a meeting, and lose no more valuable time.

Letter from Bath County.

THE PIRKETT FIGHT—RELIABLE INFORMATION—THE REBELS NUMBERED 100—OUR FORCES ENGAGED ONLY 50—ACCOMPLISHED ALL THEY DESIGNED—THE KILLED, WOUNDED AND CAPTURED.

BATH COUNTY, Nov. 18, 1861.

Editors Democrat—Gentlemen: The first report of the battle of Pickett is not true. Our little army accomplished, however, all they went for, viz: to drive the rebels out of Eastern Kentucky. The friends of Jeff. Davis in this county reported the rebel strength in the mountains to be from three to eight thousand men. It turns out, however, that their number was only one thousand. It was, no doubt, at one time much larger, but a great many of them deserted. Their commander, Col. Williams, seems to have been very unpopular; and, besides, they were not well supplied with food and other things necessary for comfort.

The most reliable information we have of the battle is that the rebels, about 1,000 in number, had occupied a position on the side of a mountain, immediately overlooking the road, at its base. The opposite side of the road, it seems, was washed by Sandy river. When the advance of Gen. Nelson's brigade, numbering about 600 men (and they were all that were in the action) had occupied the road, the rebels fired upon them from their ambush. The fire was returned and continued until they were entirely routed and driven across Sandy into Virginia.

Our loss was six killed and fifteen wounded. The enemy's loss was between fifty and sixty killed, twenty-five wounded and thirty captured. Among the killed of the enemy were the late Senator Root, of Greenup Co., Dr. Patrick, of Orangeville, Bath Co., and J. M. Burns, who is said to be a brother of Judge Burns, of this Judicial District.

BATH.

Cumberland Gap.

Although the story of the New York Herald, published last Saturday, and 40,000 troops is undoubtedly a canard, it seems to be true that General Thomas has ordered the troops back from London to Crab Orchard. With what view we are not advised, but no doubt for excellent reasons. So far as intelligence from the mountains is received, this retrograde movement is not on account of any reinforcement of the enemy. It is stated reliably that Zollicoffer's men have blocked up the road through Cumberland Gap, and also Big Creek Gap, below Williamsburg, to such an extent that at present neither is possible for anybody—not our troops, nor the enemy's—and that the rebels have fallen back into Tennessee.

There are still left in the mountains the following troops: The East Tennesseans and the 31 Kentucky at London, with the 38th Ohio encamped five miles south of London. The 14th and 17th Ohio have moved back to Crab Orchard.

FROM GREEN RIVER.—A correspondent at Calhoun, Ky., writing on the 12th, gives the following items, from which it would seem that we may soon expect to hear news of more skirmishing:

The steamers Steamer and W. V. Gillum left here yesterday evening with 700 or 800 men from the two regiments under Maj. Montfort, for some point up Green river, where it is reported the rebels are menacing Colonel McHenry's regiment, at Hatfield, in Ohio county. They left with three days' rations, and it is likely they will have a skirmish.

Col. Jackson has some 250 cavalry scouting on the south side of Green river. They have been out two or three days, probably reconnoitering around the rebel camp at Hopkinsville.

PERSONS DISCHARGED.—A short time since Green Trimble, Wm. Trimble, James Trimble, David S. Trimble, and several other wealthy citizens of Wolfe and Morgan counties, Ky., were arrested for treason against the Government. They were carried before R. Apperson, United States Commissioner, at Mount Sterling, for examination. After hearing the cases, he discharged all the prisoners excepting David Shelton Trimble, whom he committed to answer the charge in the United States Court at Frankfort next May. David S. Trimble on yesterday applied to the United States Judges, at chambers, in Louisville, to be permitted to give bail. Judge Ballard, upon hearing the case, length, granted his request, and admitted him to bail in the sum of $5,000. Simpson and Scott, of Frankfort, were counsel for the accused.

PROVOST MARCHAL.—Dent has received orders from Gen. Buell to grant no more passes to Owensboro and Henderson, except to those of the citizens of those places as may happen to be in the city at this time. The public will please take notice.

THE EVANVILLE JOURNAL, of yesterday, says that Col. Barbridge's regiment of Kentucky troops passed down the river Sunday on their way from Owensboro to Henderson. Many of them are armed with Colt's revolving rifles, and know how to use them.

Capt. Williams, of the whaling service, delivered a lecture in New York two or three nights ago, in which he stated that there were 25,000 whalers ready to go into this war if an opening was made for them.

The Grand Jury of the City Court will meet on Wednesday next, the 20th of November, at nine o'clock A. M. The witnesses will attend punctually.
